

ITALIAN CPPAS – WHERE WE STAND

14 FEBRUARY 2020 • ARTICLE

An article by Eugenio Tranchino features in PFI magazine, a monthly publication focussing on global project finance intelligence. The article looks at the growing use of corporate power purchase agreements in Italy as a result of recent changes to the regulatory framework.

He explores the benefits of CPPAs and looks into how the new regulatory framework will shape these agreements in the future, highlighting the impact of the so-called FER Decree in particular (see more in our article here), before discussing what the next steps are for businesses affected by this market trend.
