

WFW EXPANDS MADRID ASSET FINANCE PRACTICE WITH NEW COUNSEL HIRE

6 FEBRUARY 2019 • PRESS

WATSON FARLEY & WILLIAMS (“WFW”) IS EXPANDING ITS ASSET FINANCE PRACTICE IN MADRID WITH THE HIRE OF COUNSEL JOSÉ MARÍA PERY RIERA.

An expert in maritime law, José María was a Principal Associate at Uría Menéndez from 2000 to 2011, advising national and international clients on purchase and sale agreements, asset financing and construction transactions in the maritime, transport and logistics sectors. He then worked as a Legal Director for specialist consulting firms, where he supervised and lead negotiations on services agreements relating to engineering projects in both Spain and globally, as well as advising on administrative procurement agreements, overseas subsidiary and insurance policy and claims.

José María graduated in law from the Universidad Pontificia de Comillas (ICADE) in 1990, then obtaining an LLM specialising in maritime law from University College London in 1994.

José María commented: “It is a great pleasure to join WFW and be part of such a prestigious team with a reputation as one of the leading maritime sector practices worldwide”.

Madrid Asset Finance Partner Alfredo Cabellos added: “With José María’s hire, we continue the expansion of our maritime and transport practices in Spain, ensuring a quality full service offering for our clients and reinforcing our standing as the go-to firm in those sectors”.

WFW Madrid Office Head María Pilar García Guijarro said: “Our Asset finance practice continues to grow in line with that of the firm in Spain, demonstrating our leading global and local standing in this arena and ensuring our clients benefit from a highly qualified senior team in this service line”.
