BIO

INKE IS AN ASSOCIATE IN THE EMPLOYMENT GROUP.

Inke advises on all individual and collective employment law issues. In particular, she advises and assists national and international companies in transactions and restructurings with regard to project planning and negotiations with the works council on reconciliation of interests, social compensation plans and voluntary redundancy programs.

After her graduation from University of Passau, she completed her legal clerkship at the Higher Regional Court of Munich. Following her specialisation in employment law during her studies, Inke worked for over two years at a major international law firm in the field of collective employment law. She completed her elective station of the legal clerkship in the employment law department of one of the world's leading sportswear corporations.
