

GERMAN PUBLIC SECTOR NEWSLETTER: DECEMBER 2021

2 DECEMBER 2021 • ARTICLE

In our German public sector newsletter we continue to share our expertise on a variety of topics in the public sector.

In this month's edition, as part of our key topic we discuss the implementation of so-called 'test-settings' in the context of tenders. We highlight the different ways of checking to what degree offered services have been fulfilled – something that is vital when procuring more complex services such as IT systems or outsourcing projects.

In addition, we have again compiled a selection of practice-relevant developments in legislation as well as current decisions on public procurement law.
