BIO

CHIARA IS A SENIOR ASSOCIATE IN THE EMPLOYMENT GROUP.

Chiara demonstrates expertise in contentious and non-contentious advice in connection with labour law, with focus on data protection profiles, to clients in the private (companies, multinational groups, top management and executives) and public sector.

In particular, she provides day-to-day assistance on issues related to the management of the employment and trade union relationship. She deals with negotiation and drafting of various types of employment contracts (including agency agreements), disciplinary and dismissal procedures, company policies and collective company agreements, as well as handling labour and social security litigation.

Chiara regularly drafts court briefs and represents clients before the Court.

She has also gained significant experience in public employment with focus on local government agencies, hospitals and health care structures.

Chiara has refined her studies in labour, trade union and social security law at Scuola di Alta Formazione (Advanced Training School in Labour Law) of the Italian Employment Lawyers Association (AGI). She also has deepened her knowledge in data protection and new technology law at the University of Milan.

In addition to Italian, Chiara speaks English.
