BIO

NORBERT SCHLEPER IS COUNSEL IN THE REGULATORY, PUBLIC LAW & COMPETITION GROUP.

He specialises in administrative, public procurement and state aid law as well as sector-specific regulatory law. Norbert advises on infrastructure and digitisation projects with a focus on mobility, telecommunications/IT and health.

Norbert advises on the legal conception, preparation and implementation of procurement procedures and competitive procedures, including the drafting of service agreements and conducting negotiations. He also advises bidders on their participation in public procurement procedures. He represents both contracting authorities and bidders in review proceedings and other (judicial) disputes.

Norbert has special experience in regulated infrastructures in the telecommunications and transport sectors. He advises in issues relating to financing and structuring as well as the granting of access to infrastructure facilities.

His clients include federal and state ministries, local authorities and municipalities as well as public and private companies, e.g. telecommunication companies.
