

CHEMICAL COMPANIES AS PRODUCERS OF GREEN ELECTRICITY

25 APRIL 2023 • ARTICLE

Given rising energy prices and increasing sustainability requirements, more and more industrial companies are becoming producers of green electricity themselves.

In a recent article for a German publication, CHEManager, Partners Dr F. Maximilian Boemke and Thomas Hollenhorst share their thoughts on chemical companies exploring green electricity production, highlighting the opportunities it poses to stabilise costs and achieve their environmental, social and governance goals.
