

EMBRACE ESG TO ENCOURAGE FINANCE INNOVATION

17 MAY 2023 • ARTICLE

Ports can open up funding options with aligned initiatives.

In the current climate in which ports and terminals are competing for customer volume, continued investment in the infrastructure, superstructures and equipment for a terminal is increasingly important.

In the Global Ports Report 2023, a Seatrade special publication sponsored by TT Club, Partners Florian Kutzbach, Sarah Ellington and Christina Howard discuss how those seeking financing for any such investment need to take into account the ever-intensifying focus on the environmental, social and governance (ESG) credentials of the wider shipping industry, and in particular the push for decarbonisation.
