

GERMAN PUBLIC SECTOR NEWSLETTER: JUNE 2023

22 JUNE 2023 • ARTICLE

In the current issue of our newsletter, we would like to inform you again about current developments in the public sector.

Hardly any mobility, infrastructure or digitization project is realized without the use of state subsidies. As a result, the requirements for the proper implementation of procurement projects also increase significantly, provided that one does not want to risk reclaiming grants. The number of case laws on this topic is increasing, so that in any case knowledge of the absolute “no gos” is necessary in order to reduce risks.

Trust is good, control is better – with the Topic of the Month, we would like to inform you on the basis of current case law about the possibilities of how performance promises of companies can be checked within the framework of the award procedure and thus unpleasant surprises in the execution of the contract can be avoided.

In addition, we have again compiled a selection of practice-relevant developments in legislation as well as current decisions under public procurement law.
