17. Joint 1st by deal count, Renewables, France; and

18. 1st by deal count, Renewables, Spain.

In addition, the firm received ten new rankings one of which was the top spot for deal count, Project Finance, Italy.

WFW's IJGlobal rankings saw notable improvements, particularly in the infrastructure space, which saw a rise from 15th to 10th place for Global Infrastructure, a huge leap from 37th to 18th place for Transport Infrastructure and a new ranking for MENA Infrastructure.

Rounding up, inspiratia saw the firm ranked second place by deal count and take top spot for the highest total disclosed transaction volume.

Global Energy Group Co-Head Henry Stewart commented: "We're delighted that we continue to perform so well in these key energy and infrastructure rankings. Seeing us make great strides in Europe, particularly in Italy where we have climbed in existing rankings and obtained new ones, is greatly encouraging and consolidates our position as one of the world's top legal advisors in sector".

Global Energy Group Co-Head Malte Jordan added: "Making progress on the infrastructure side of the rankings is also wonderful to see as we focus on growing our footprint in this sector – something clearly reflected in our global deal counts and rankings".
