

ALEX MCCUE

SENIOR ASSOCIATE • LONDON

T: +44 20 7155 2759

✉ AMcCue@wfw.com

in <https://www.linkedin.com/in/alex-mccue-222b2856/>

SECTORS: Maritime, Containers and Logistics, LNG and Offshore, Commercial Shipping, Ports and Terminals

SERVICES: Dispute Resolution, Maritime Dispute Resolution

BIO

ALEX IS A SENIOR ASSOCIATE IN THE DISPUTE RESOLUTION GROUP OF OUR LONDON OFFICE, SPECIALISING IN MARITIME DISPUTES.

Alex has extensive experience of a wide range of contentious maritime disputes including shipbuilding, charterparty and bill of lading disputes, finance enforcement, bunker issues, offshore issues, commodities matters and more recently decarbonisation issues such as CII/EEXI/EU ETS. Informed by this experience, he also assists clients with non-contentious and drafting matters.

Alex qualified and subsequently worked for several years at a leading international firm, with secondments at a ship owner, an International Group P&I Club and a leading offshore contractor. He subsequently worked at a second International Group P&I Club.

EXPERIENCE

Advising on a high-value cargo claim involving alleged seawater contamination of a chemical cargo which was subsequently used in a chemical plant

Advising on a very high value dispute between an FPSO owner and shipyard, involving almost all parts of the unit's process train

Assisting a major international bank to track, arrest and sell multiple vessels for large unpaid sums under the relevant finance agreements

WATSON FARLEY & WILLIAMS

Assisting owners when their vessel was detained for drugs found in the cargo – successfully recovering hire from Charterers

Assisting owners with various complex and technical bunker contamination disputes for Owners

EDUCATION

2007 – 2009 · LLB (GDL and LPC), College of Law

2004 – 2007 · BA Hons (History), University of Manchester