WEEKLY ITALIAN LABOUR UPDATES

"The cost for the welfare may be entirely deducted from corporate income tax if assigned to the employees due to a collective company agreement."

In this edition of our bitesize weekly Italian employment update, "Snacks", our team looks at the following recent cases and notices:

- additional pay in collective agreements and equal access to part-time employees;
 - compensation for straining if there is no repetition of the unlawful conduct;
 - food delivery companies and payment of social security contributions;
 - New Skills Fund and extension of final deadline for pay application;
 - full-time employment and partial suspension due to conclusive evidence;
 - end of contribution relief for first-level apprenticeships;
- Inps clarifies the benefits of the Air Transport Solidarity Fund;
 - no change in pension requirements for 2025-2026;
 - the principle of the "constitutional fair wage" and the inadequacy of NCLAs; and
 - the non-EU foreigner's temporary tax code is sufficient for the employment contract.
