WEEKLY ITALIAN LABOUR UPDATES

"Collective agreements allow to regulate access to training and the assessment of the skills acquired."

In this edition of our bitesize weekly Italian employment update, "Snacks", our team looks at the following recent cases and notices:

- dismissal for exceeding sick leave taken by disabled person and indirect discrimination;
- Inps clarifies the tax exemption for hiring under 30s;
- Disability Portal launched on Inps website;
- the unlawful transfer of undertaking extends to retired employees;
- standby time and working hours;
- alternative use of extraordinary leave;
- Inps clarifications on supplementary benefits of the Air Transport Solidarity Fund;
- group companies' connection and dismissal for role suppression;
- inconsistent complaints against the employer and dismissal for cause;
- commitment to hire and delay due to pre-employment medical examination; and
- questioning unconstitutionality of the sanctions for objective dismissal provided by the Jobs Act.
