WEEKLY ITALIAN LABOUR UPDATES

"The safety officer is responsible for accidents at work in case of lack of control."

In this edition of our bitesize weekly Italian employment update, "Snacks", our team looks at the following recent cases and notices:

- smart working for parents with children under 14 extended until 31 March 2024;
- safety officers and small businesses;
- company that does not guarantee adequate remuneration excluded from public tender;
- procedure to officialise irregular foreigners' employments is lawful;
- a contractor's dismissal has no effect on a client;
- safety officer's liability and failure to stop working activities;
- intra-company services and unlawful supply of workers;
- identification of sectors with the highest gender gap;
- no executive rank for a HR Manager without decision-making power; and
- timeliness of disciplinary proceedings initiated one year after complaint.
