Biography:

Arcangelo is Senior Associate in the Regulatory, Public Law e Competition group.

Arcangelo specialises in public and administrative law regarding energy and public utilities regulation, public procurement and environmental laws.

Arcangelo assists public and private client companies, operating in public works and public utilities sectors (energy, public transport and water).

In particular, he assists on an ongoing basis an Italian national gas Transmission System Operator regarding all the legal aspects of its activity and the construction of its pipelines infrastructures.

Arcangelo has experience in litigation before the Administrative Courts, assisting public utilities companies and a Europe's leading airline.

Further expertise has been acquired attending postgraduate law courses in relation to energy law (2013; 2015) and public procurement (2014; 2015; 2017).

Arcangelo obtained his Bachelor's (2005) and Master's degree (2007) from the LUISS University of Rome, both with theses regarding the awarding of public tenders to joint public-private enterprises. In 2013, he was admitted to the Italian Bar.

Arcangelo is member of the Association of the Young Administrative Lawyers and Fellow of the Academy of American and International Law (Plano, Texas, USA).

He is author of several articles regarding energy law and public utilities.

In addition to Italian, he speaks English fluently.
