Biography:

Devan is a Partner in the Employment and Immigration Group.

Devan advises on a broad range of contentious and non-contentious employment law matters for both individuals and companies, including the full range of day to day employment advice, drafting executive level service agreements and non-executive director agreements, employee disputes and policies and procedures.

He has particular expertise in the employment aspects of share and business acquisitions (domestic and cross-border) and complex TUPE-related advice, including on outsourcing agreements.

Devan specialises in immigration matters such as all aspects of the Points-Based Immigration System including complex Tier 2 and investor applications, UK nationality applications and the impact of Brexit on EEA nationals.

Top legal directory Legal 500 UK has recommended him as being “outstanding” (2018) and “particularly knowledgeable” (2018-19) on immigration-related matters.
