Biography:

Jeremy is a Partner in the Regulatory and Competition Group.

Jeremy provides merger control, State Aid and competition/antitrust advice as well as the full range of contentious and non-contentious EU, competition and economic regulatory advice across a range of sectors. He is particularly well known for his expertise in the aviation and energy sectors.

Jeremy also advises on data protection law and on the regulatory implications of Brexit.

He is recommended as a leading EU and competition law expert by legal directories Chambers UK and Chambers Global, who noted in 2019 that he is “articulate, user-friendly and very knowledgeable on aviation competition law issues”.
