Biography:

Karen is Of Counsel in the Real Estate group, and leads the New York leasing practice.

Karen has extensive experience representing landlords and tenants in retail, office and industrial leasing transactions. She acts for both landlords and tenants.

Karen's practice encompasses properties throughout the United States, and includes representing institutional and private owners of neighborhood shopping centers and lifestyle centers, office buildings and industrial parks.

In Karen's landlord-side practice, she negotiates with tenants both national and regional, publicly traded and private, as well as local tenants. On the tenant side, she has represented national, big-box retailers, as well as national and regional retailers in the roll-out of new concept locations, among other things.
