
LUDOVICA CESARI

Telephone: +39 06 684 0581

Mobile: +39 06 684 0581

Email: LCesari@wfw.com

Biography:

Ludovica is a trainee in the Public Law, Regulatory and Competition group.

Ludovica specialises in Administrative law and Competition. Her focus also includes dispute and claims related to Aviation.

She graduated in law at the Pontifical Lateran University with a thesis on Regulatory and Competition in Aviation.

She is attending a Master of Science in Antitrust and Market Regulation at Tor Vergata University, focusing in Project activities, implementation and evaluation of regulation and protection policies in the electronic communications, energy, transport, postal, water and environmental markets.

She has been a Research Fellow in Airport Concessions for Demetra Study Center.

In addition to Italian, she speaks English, Spanish and French.

Further details:

EDUCATION

March 2019 – Present Master of Science in Antitrust e Market Regulation. Tor Vergata University.

April – October 2018 Professional Training of Creditor Sector. Of Unione Finanziarie Italiane and Mefop

October 2013 – October 2018 Master's degree in law. Thesis Title: "The Grandfather's Rule in Airport slot allocation: distortion of competition". Pontifical Lateran University.

January – June 2017 Training Course in Refugees and Migrants. Sapienza University of Rome.

MEMBERSHIPS & ASSOCIATIONS

Enrolled in the Special Register of Trainees with the Rome Bar since 2018.