Biography:

Marcus is a Partner working in the Dispute Resolution group.

Marcus has represented many shipping companies, oil companies (including oil majors), aviation companies, banks, FPSO owners, contractors, subcontractors and yards, in a variety of disputes, with certain claims exceeding US$1billion.

Marcus is dual-qualified, in England & Wales and Hong Kong.

“Marcus and his team in Hong Kong conducted the synchronised arrest and sale of numerous vessels in Hong Kong efficiently and cost effectively. The WFW team was extremely knowledgeable, responsive and easy to deal with and got a great result – a 100% recovery on the claim and legal expenses.” (Leading Bank Executive, 2020)

“Very easy to deal with, knowledgeable and responsive.” Chambers Global 2018

“... provided fantastic commercial dispute resolution advice in connection with... JOAs, PSCs and oil field licences/concessions.” (GC Listed Oil Company, 2018)

“... superb, solution-oriented, litigator who is extraordinarily knowledgeable, hardworking and responsive. He is the ‘go-to’ arbitration practitioner in the oil & gas ... sector...” (Oil Major Claims Manager, 2018)

“... the ‘amazing’ Marcus Gordon is recommended” (Legal 500 2014)

“... stands out as a very impressive practitioner.” (Chambers Asia-Pacific 2014)

“... prompt, effective and diligent litigation support in connection with several highly contentious aircraft redeliveries ... His grasp of the legal, technical and commercial issues is superb.” (GC at Leading Airline, 2018)

Marcus has sat, or is sitting, as arbitrator in 20 international arbitrations, primarily in the oil & gas, shipping and commodities sectors. He has written numerous arbitration awards.

Marcus is on the following panels: HKIAC, SIAC, KLRCA; SCMA; SIAC SGX-DC; SIAC Emergency Arbitrator.

Marcus is the principle author of the “Oil & Gas Arbitration” chapter in Arbitration in Singapore: A Practical Guide, Sweet & Maxwell, 2014.
