Biography:

Mei is a Partner in the Assets & Structured Finance Group in Singapore.

Mei specialises in cross-border asset, project and structured finance transactions in the maritime & logistics and energy sectors. Her experience in the energy sector covers conventional power, offshore oil & gas and mining & commodities.

She advises financial institutions, export credit agencies, lessors, lessees, owners and operators and assists clients in the maritime and offshore sectors on the establishment, expansion and restructuring of their businesses across the Asia Pacific region.

Mei is widely recognised as one of Asia's top shipping finance experts, having been named one of Lloyd's List Top 10 maritime lawyers in 2017, as well as receiving their Asia Pacific "Individual Lawyer of the Year" award the same year. She was also named "Best in shipping" at the Euromoney Asia Women in Business Law Awards in both 2016 and most recently in 2019.

Leading legal directories Legal 500 Asia Pacific, Chambers Asia Pacific, Chambers Global and IFLR 1000 are equally effusive in their recognition of Mei. In the 2020 rankings, IFLR 1000 recognises Mei as a Highly Regarded individual in Energy & Infrastructure, Project Development and Project Finance and in the Shipping, Logistics, Energy and Oil & Gas sectors. Legal 500 Asia Pacific 2021 comments that, "Mei Lin Goh's expertise is deep-seated and long-established." In 2020, Chambers noted she is "a strong leader and very knowledgeable" and "has the ability to bridge the gap and find solutions even for the more complicated deals". Chambers describes her as "probably the most knowledgeable lawyer of the Korean market" and that "her expertise in bankruptcy matters is a special asset".
