Biography:

Nikolaus is a Partner in the Employment group based across Munich, Hamburg and Frankfurt and heads the employment law practice in Germany.

Nikolaus advises national and international companies on individual and collective employment law and represents clients in employment litigation. He specialises in works council and trade union-related matters, management employment contracts as well as transactions and restructurings. Furthermore, he reviews and drafts contractual employment provisions in M&A transactions.

Nikolaus is a lecturer at the Bucerius Law School, Hamburg. The JUVE Handbook 2017/2018 describes Nikolaus as “very knowledgeable and committed, his sector expertise helped us a great deal in our structural measures” for employment. In the annual rankings by Best Lawyers, Nikolaus is listed among the Best Lawyers in Germany 2019 for ‘Labour and Employment Law’.
