Biography:

Stephanie is an Associate in the firm's Finance group.

Stephanie's practice focusses on the financing of energy, maritime and infrastructure projects and her experience spans Asia, the United States, Africa, and Latin America. She is admitted to practice law in New York, and is registered as a foreign lawyer in Singapore.

Prior to joining Watson Farley & Williams, Stephanie worked as an associate in the Singapore office of an international law firm, where she acted for lenders funding debt financing for infrastructure-related facilities and other projects, represented borrowers relating to project finance and hybrid bridge loans and advised clients on their acquisition of project companies, capital markets transactions, joint venture arrangements, and restructuring and data protection issues. Stephanie has worked closely with Chinese financial institutions and companies on Chinese outbound projects and other matters; she has also assisted banks and companies based in the United States, Singapore, Australia, Hong Kong, and Saudi Arabia.
